

WAAF Christmas Social 2008

Our chairman Mr. Jaffer Bhimji said "What a fabulous evening it turned out to be!"

Mr. Ian Sclater's cruise talk went extremely well and I must say, how can he remember all those facts is beyond me. When I grow up, I want Ian's memory bank. Did you know that Norway was the fourth largest oil exporter in the world? I didn't!

And as far as the 'posh' food table was concerned, I have to say it was very impressive. What a shame that I had such a big dinner prior to my arrival.

Nonetheless, the mulled wine was so good that I had two glasses and enjoyed every drop of it.

My grateful thanks to both Ian and Grelle White for enhancing WAAF's social and taking to a higher level.
