

WAAF Christmas Social 2009

Christmas was off to a high-spirited, seasonal start on Wednesday, December 16, with Watford being turned into a white winter wonderland in the morning in time for the traditional WAAF social get-together at Watford Museum in the evening.

Guests truly appreciated the warming effect of mulled wine and mince pies and the atmosphere was heightened by live music and entertainment by Frankie Dee.

The entertainment was an early Christmas present from WAAF sponsor, Praful Patel, and climaxed with everyone singing carols before stepping into the White Christmas season with a spring in their step.
