

Sarratt Festival of Music

The Sarratt Festival of Music takes place annually over the last two weekends of September in Sarratt Village Hall.

During the past ten years, musicians of the highest calibre have performed for enthusiastic and capacity audiences in the Village Hall.

Previous performers include: Catherine Bott, the Haffner Ensemble, Claire Martin, the Medici Quartet, Red Priest, the Locrian Ensemble, Tango Volcano, John Lill, Jacqui Dankworth and The Best of British Jazz.

The Festival commissioned the world premiere of “Stirring the Spirit” a moving music drama production based on Elgar’s final years and continues to look for new and exciting musical events to present.

In 2005 John Lill agreed to become the Festival’s patron.
