Artists "live" at Childwickbury

Two local artists, Camilla Clutterbuck from Chorleywood and Anthony Wildig from Bushey will be displaying and demonstrating their work at this year's Childwickbury Arts Fair, July 3-5. Created and hosted by Christiane Kubrick in the beautiful grounds of Childwickbury House between St Albans and Harpended, the arts fair is a vibrant feast of creativity with music and entertainment as well as displays, demonstrations and workshops for children.

Evening concerts require booking, but the days are packed with events run to a "flexible" timetable. Entrance £6 for adults, seniors and children £4. For further information visit
